

What Happened

About to enter a shop; sees a man cough and make eye contact with another man

How I made sense of this

It's the signal for me to be attacked (100% belief)
The people who will attack me are capable of doing anything they want

How I felt

Terrified (100%)
Racing heart, sick, tense (99%)

What I did

Ran home as quickly as possible, locked self in, checked house for intruders
